Tribune tells how things are getting on in the city of Charleston, S. C.

The public schools are opened, and black as wen as white are to be received premiseuously. He tells of two ladies who applied to be allowed their old places. They did not obect much to the oath of allegiauce, but when informed that negroes were to be tanght in distinguished position, had taught negroes, and boasted of it; that the negroes were loyal and the whites disjoyal, and the Government could not discriminate against its friends

The ladies preferred a private school. ion, but they pever change the prejudices of caste. Not long since negroes were pushed back from the association with whites at a public reception, and the rumor that negroes were to be admitted to the inauguration ball got up s rumpus; so that one of the court journals had o deny that any such thing would be done. Black and white are not allowed in the game schools North any more than South, nor are the blacks allowed to ride in the same public conveyances; but the attempt is made to force this fanatical folly on Southern cities.

It would be of less consequence—for the attempt will fail, just as certain as water will run down hill-but just now it is like many other policies; its effect is to prolong inveterate repugnance to the Government of the United States.

There is a crisis close at hand of great interest. Armies will have done all that armies can do; when there will be no force in the Confederacy to mest large armies of the night. Our Martyred Rank and Frie:
In dieta t naves these martyrs lie.
Chiefe are retembed in native soll;
Soldiere must melder where they die.
They sleep uneung—high gifted bards
For falen leaders pour the lay,
But genius not a line awards
To grace unepauletted clay.
In pits and trenches—charnels vile—
Unbonered jo: the Rank and File.

Be these my theme. Great names command As at they should—a requiem proad;
But amid nameless graves I stand,
Sed poet of a slaughtered crowd.
Though to the histories written here,
Their deeds, their worth, may ne'er be show
Ti-record silnes forth bright and clear,
Waste ear h's murcoopuzed are known,
trood argels welcome with a smile.
The spurits of the Rank and File.

The spirits of the Rank and File.

Take comfort, all ye widowed ones,
Who seek your hasbands' dust in vain;
Take comfort, mothers, ye whose sons
Lie lost in marse of the talan.

Up from the "dark end bloody ground,"
That b'des them from yen now, shall come
The burled cohorts, glory crowned,
When pea's the resurrection drum.
All peace fully they rest meanwhile,
Those heroes of the Rank and File.

But late a living wall they stood,
Between our homes and barm—these braves;
When I forget ench brotherhood,
May Heaven my portion cast with slaves!
I sing their orige with hated breath;
I write these tines with quivering pen;
Sorg has: o voice, at d Fame no wreath,
Too glorious for such glorious men.
Their chrue, tuetoad of marble pile,
Shall be our hearts—the Rank and File.

How Some Frenchmen Earn a Living Secessity—the mother of invention—has been fertile in expedients in the twelfth arrondissement of Paris. There is the mag-got-breeder for the fishermen of the Seine; he money-lender who charges cent, per cent. by lending from sunrise to sunset, the poor reveilleuse, who goes from house to house through the winter nights to waken sleepers who must be at the markets; and there is the "guardian angel," whose business consists in seeing drunkards home from the wine shops, at the rate of ten sous per drunkard! Behind all these quaint bread-winners there are crowds of men and women, who depend on public or private

They say it has an aromatic smell that's not like anybody else's, and is even better'n the night blowing serions. I hope you didn't hear the one that has the penal ase. It's strange good people can patronize these baser sort o' things. And you heard the sympathy of A. Miner, did you? For my part I should raley like to hear He was onr next door neighbor and Paul used to say that Adolphus Miner hadn't a mossel of sympathy for anybody, and people generally didn't think he had; but la, me! times change, and now it seems he's got some, and had it set into music.

G. T. Wood, Chairman. March 6, 1865.

To the Citizens of Louisville. The committee appointed by the General Council to attend to the disbursement of the b unty fund beg leave to call the attention of the citizens to the following facts: The fuel, $200,000, appropriated by the city, only sufficient to pay bounty to 6662.3 men, he amount to this date contributed by the $25 unseribers to the bounty fund is $39,200, which will only pay bountles to 140 men. Thus, the wo funds combined will pay for but 797 men. There have been already enlisted to the credit of the city 442 men, a dihere are now 450 men more who offer to callet. When they shall be called, it will make the number credited to couls vite 892 mer, which is 95 men more will pay. Busides, even if this number of 892 will pay. Besoes, even it tals number of 892 men should be paid, there would still be a deficiency o. 366 men; and unless this deficiency is made un the draft will be ordered. In addition to the 450 men, now about to be enlisted, others can be procured; they are daily offering and there will be no difficulty in procuring enough and more than enough men to fall the divisor notes and avoid the deriv fill the city's quota and avoid the draft. all the city's quota and avoid the draft.

Let the citiz'ne, therefore, come forward at once and enbecrite to the fund, so that we may not have to turn away the volunteers for want of funds to pay the bounty. This we must do, unless the citizene promptly come forward to morrow; for, as before observed, we have already more men entaged than the fund will now pay. Let every citizen take an interest in the matter, and not be satisfied alone with subscibing, but let him mean lone with subscribing, but let him urge there to come forward and subscribe, and of cease his work till enough money is raised to pay off the city's quota.

Symptoms.

The symptoms of Catarrh are at first very slight, Per one find they have a cold, that they have frequent at ack-, and are more sensitive to the changes of temper three. In this condition, the nose may be dry, or, light discharge, thin and acrid, afterwards thick an neelve may cosne, se the discase becomes chronic, the discharges are in ased in quant ty and charged in quality; they are withlet and heavy, and are hawked or coupled off e secretions are offensive, canding a bad breath; the ice thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the seque of ell is lessened or destroyed; deafness hequently take one. place.

Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is, that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a thick or silmy mneus, which has failen from the bead during the night. When this takes place it berson may be more that his disease is on its way to the ines, and should lose us then in arresting it. The above are but few of the many Catarrhal rymptoms; it will be sent reast to any address.
